HAPPY
TEACHERS SAID...

> Sound Wall with Mouth Pictures aligns wonderfully with Science of Reading. It was very helpful teaching my students how to hold their mouth when making the letter sounds. I love it. Thank you! - Gina C.

> This is a wonderful resource to hang in the classroom. All I have to do is point, and my students look for what they need to help them as they practice. - Amy N.

> I am not using them as a sound wall, but as cards in my small group instruction! They are great. I love all the options. - Amanda C.
